

The Sydney Opera House is dominated by its shell-like roof structure sitting on a large raised podium. Design your own roof, considering how the interior acoustics of the building might influence the external roof shape.

Design a roof form that could be supported by this podium... ➔

